Northern Lights

"After our time in Southern Europe, we traveled to Western Europe. We spent a month working with Great Commission partners as they see the Gospel advance among those who have reached the end of the refugee highway. Culture shock in every sense of the word is what awaits refugees on arrival. Many have experienced untold trauma and loss by the time they reach their final destination. They begin to realize the same old problems they thought they left behind have followed them to their new home. Depression, despair, and intense seeking for true meaning dominate their thoughts. Some have chosen to turn to Islamic extremism for a variety of reasons. Others are open to hear the Gospel and are free to hear for the first time in their lives. All across Europe hundreds of people from the most closed countries in the world are accepting new life in Christ. They are meeting together and sharing with friends and neighbors!"

- Pray for the safety of new groups
- Pray for European believers to share boldly
- Pray the Kingdom continues to advance rapidly

Aaron Benson

"Thank you to all of you who have given financially and prayed for me as I prepare for my time in Nepal. My lecture phase at YWAM has been amazing and I am learning so much. I appreciate you making it possible for me to serve the Lord. God Bless."

Continue to pray for Aaron as he prepares to leave for Nepal on Sept 28. Pray for safety, unity of the team, with prepared hearts and obedience to serve.

We'd love to pray for you! Update our online prayer chain by going to easthaven.org. Click resources, then prayer. Click on share your prayer request and fill out the form.

BE IN PRAYER FOR THE FOLLOWING:

Family Concepts

"But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." Isaiah 40:31

Note that the verse likens the eagle to those who hope in the Lord. Is that a picture of the U.S. today? Where is our hope? Is it in whomever currently occupies the White House or Congress? The American eagle can soar again when we learn as a people to place our hope in the Lord.

Father, forgive us, for the pride that has often marked us a nation... That pride has caused us to put our hope in our own strength and might and not in You. If we are to run and not grow weary as a nation, it will be only because we have turned back to You as our hope. Help us, Lord, to hope in You!

GUEST SPEAKER ON SEPTEMBER 4: BARRETT DUKE, PH.D

What would a Christian say about our nation today? Find out on Sunday, September 4th. Vice President for Public Policy and Research, and Director of the Research Institute of The Ethics & Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, Barrett Duke, is coming to speak at our Sunday services.

As Vice President for Public Policy and Research, Barrett directs the work of the ERLC's advocacy arm in Washington, DC. In this capacity, he communicates Southern Baptist convictions to elected and public officials in order to influence the development of sound public policy. As Director of the Commission's Research Institute, Barrett oversees the Commission's research and the collection of information on the pressing moral and religious liberty issues of the day.

Barrett has worked with legislators and various government agencies on many legislative and public policy issues, including abortion, euthanasia, gambling, homosexuality, immigration reform, judicial nominations, pornography, public education, religious liberty, same-sex marriage, sex trafficking, stem cell research, and substance abuse. He has testified during hearings of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms and before the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Immigration and Border Security. He speaks regularly on Christian worldview, sanctity of human life, gambling, homosexuality, capital punishment, public education, religious freedom, separation of church and state, and other issues in many religious and civic settings.

Barrett received the BA degree, with a major in Bible, in 1982 from the Criswell College in Dallas, Texas. During his years at the Criswell College, he served as Student Body Vice President and President. He received the MA degree in Old Testament Studies in 1985 from Denver Conservative Baptist Seminary in Denver, Colorado. While at Denver Seminary, he participated in a three week study tour of Israel at the Institute of Holy Land Studies in Jerusalem, Israel. In 1999, he received the Ph.D. in Religious and Theological Studies from the joint doctoral program of the Iliff School of Theology and the University of Denver.

Prior to his current position, Barrett was the founding pastor of Cornerstone Church in a suburb of Denver, Colorado, from 1984 to 1996, leading a small home Bible study group of 13 people to organize as a church of nearly 200. In addition, he led the congregation to purchase eight acres of land and build a first phase church building in a growing suburb of Denver. Barrett especially enjoys helping Christians to connect God's Word with their lives and assisting churches to bring God's love in Jesus and His truth to their communities.
