Now What?

One of the most painful, confusing presidential elections in history is over. Regardless of your view on the results, life continues. The question before us as believers is, "Now what?" Will we stop praying for our nation or intensify our prayers? Was this really just about who would be the next President of the United States or did God use this election to stir us up in prayer to depend more upon Him than ever before? Clearly, it is not time to stop or slow down in our prayer lives. More than ever, the future of our nation depends upon the prayers of God's people.

Some important ways to begin to seriously intercede for the United States in the days ahead:

1. Healing in the Church, for healing of relationships & unity
2. Healing in the nation, for peace to be restored
3. Wisdom for our new President in choosing key people
4. Supreme Court, for wisdom that will impact the nation for years
5. Revival & Great Awakening. One of the greatest benefits of this election season has been the increasing awareness within the Church that we desperately need revival. Pray for God to send another revival and Great Awakening to our nation that would awaken the Church, bring salvation to millions, and transform the culture of our nation.

Before the election, thousands of Christians across the nation were praying at each State capitol, in groups, families, and churches. As a nation, we were on the edge of a dangerous precipice. We deserved judgement, but God extended mercy. We can't go back to our passive ways, but need to stay in the battle. The enemy will not sit back and accept defeat. The new administration is in need of continual prayer support. This is not a time to fall back and lose the ground that has been taken, but to stay on task praying for the advancement of the Kingdom.

South Asia Project: A testimony from our partner: "A' is a strong believer, although her sons are not. She has cancer and has fallen three times in the past month. She is unable to sit, stand, or walk. Her sons took her to the hospital along with our partner workers. She asked the workers to pray that God would take her as she was in so much pain. They prayed and the sons said, 'Amen'. The doctor examined her and the x-ray returned negative. Her sons believe they had witnessed the power of God. She slept well and returned home with no pain. Her sons want to come to church."

New Tribes Mission: Pray for Carmen DeVries in Papua New Guinea and Jake and Katie Oyler as they attend classes.

Aaron Benson: Pray as he attends YWAM and serves in SE Asia. Pray for safety and effective ministry as they distribute Bibles.

Zach & Carrie Wolfe (Pioneers): Zach and Carrie have been called to work with unreached peoples of the world. They will be moving to Orlando the first of December where they will be on staff. Zach will be organizing mission teams who will work with unreached people groups. Prayer is needed for the rest of their support and funds to cover their move to Florida. Carrie is in need of healing of some chronic health challenges.

Zach and Carrie Wolfe have been called to work with unreached peoples of the world. Working with a ministry called Pioneers, they will be taking on new positions at their headquarters in Orlando.

Find Zach, Carrie, and Vera in the Atrium after each service to connect with them and hear more about the call God has placed on their hearts.

There will also be a silent art auction in the Atrium, with pieces of Carrie's work. The proceeds from the silent auction will help the Wolfe's purchase a vehicle. The auction will begin on November 5 and end on November 20. Thanks for supporting them and their ministry!
