Ramadan—May 27–June 25

What better time than Ramadan for Christians to pray for the world's Muslim people as they fast, pray, and seek God. Pray that God would reveal Jesus to them. Pray for the Christians who live and work with Muslims. Pray for a greater breakthrough of the Gospel among Muslims.

Pastor 'Abraham' works in an area with a high concentration of Syrian refugees. He often struggles with fear when sharing the gospel with Muslims, but then he had an experience where the Lord told him not to fear. Soon after, "Fadi," a Syrian man who once associated with extreme Muslims, came to see him. When he arrived at Abraham's home, Abraham boldly told Fadi that Islam was inspired by Satan. Abraham then walked closer to him and said, "God is here beside you now. He is putting His hand on your shoulder, asking you, 'What do you want?'" "I want salvation," Fadi answered. Abraham shared the gospel with Fadi and prayed with him. He soon came to faith in Christ and four months ago Abraham baptized Fadi. Fadi and his wife, now a Christian, share God's love in their refugee camp. Pray that Fadi's powerful testimony will draw many Muslims, including other extremists, into a relationship with Jesus. Pray that the hearts of Muslims will soften as Fadi, his wife, and Abraham share the gospel.

We'd love to pray for you! Update our online prayer chain by going to easthaven.org. Click resources, then prayer. Click on share your prayer request and fill out the form.

MEET THE SINGLETON FAMILY...

...part of our Easthaven family, engaging in our passion of reaching orphans around the world.

"Our family is built through adoption with our first two boys adopted locally. Thanks to birth moms who have chosen life and made adoption plans, we were chosen to be the parents of Dylan and Ethan who were born in Montana. During our third adoption, we waited two years for a birth mom to call us. Instead, my wife received a phone call from the adoption agency "Great Wall China" and was notified about a little girl who needed a home. "Great Wall China" had heard about our family being in the waiting pool from other friends of ours who have adopted internationally, but we took that phone call as the Lord's hand opening the door for us to adopt Internationally and we are faithfully moving forward!

International adoption is a completely different process and price! We are beyond excited and are doing everything we can to be prepared to welcome a beautiful little girl into our home. As part of our adoption process, we have started a crowdfunding campaign. We have set a goal of $35,000 to help rescue Layla and bring her home to Montana!

Thank you for supporting our adoption and orphans in the world!"
